The very best way for the Republicans of Kentucky to "get together" is to recognize the fact that the party in this state is again under the leadership of the only man who ever led to victory, and resolve, one and all, to follow him. Let me be so bold as to tell you who is referred to. The Ledger will merely intimate that the front initials of this gentleman's name is WILLIAM O'CONNELL BRADLEY.

It's a cold day in August when a Democratic Court, "under the form of law," can't find a way to get rid of a Republican majority—in Kentucky. The County Judge of Rush county has appointed a Commissioner to re-district the Magisterial Districts in that county, in order that he may appoint a couple of Democratic Magistrates and thus overcome the present Republican majority in the Fiscal Court. And yet the people wonder at the increase of crime.

Congressman Kehoe has filed with the Postoffice Department an application for the rural delivery service in this county.

Mr. Steve C. Hunsley of near Stone City, Lewis county, had the misfortune to have his leg broken several days ago. It has only been three years since he had his arm broken. He formerly operated a livery and feed stable at Vanceburg.

Senator Deboe Wednesday introduced a bill similar to the one introduced in the House Tuesday by Representative Kehoe, changing the time of holding Court in the Eastern Judicial District. Senator Deboe's bill also adds Catlettsburg as a place of holding Court.

Mr. William Hardy of Vanceburg died suddenly Wednesday of heart failure. He was about 75 and well to do. Mrs. Kay of this city was employed as governess in his family for ten years ago at their country home, Randolph. Four of the boys grew to manhood and died.
